

BOB VAN DEN BRAND
 Department of Accounting
 Professor of Accounting
 Faculty Position: Adjunct Professor

ISG International Business School
 8 rue de Lota
 F-75116 Paris
 Tél: + 33 1 56 26 26 26
bbrand@rsm.nl

Bob VAN DEN BRAND is an adjunct professor at the ISG International Business School. He holds a Ph.D. in Accounting.

- His area of expertise concern Organizational Behavior and Career Management.
- His teaching specializations concern Management and International Business.

Qualification & Participation

Intellectual Contributions (2012-2017)	Scholarly Book
	Book Chapter
Qualification		IP

Participation (2016-2017)	Class Hours
	Jurys	X
	Meetings (department, research, accreditation ...)	X
	Mentoring project/thesis	X
Participation		YES

Teaching Areas (2016-2017)

Course 1: Financial & Management Accounting

Education

1997 - 2005

Ph.D. in Accounting, University of Tilburg

1992 - 1996

MSc. in (Business) Economics - University of Tilburg

1988-1992

Bac in Economics, Business and Education, Moller Institute, Tilburg

Teaching Experiences

2007 – present

ISG-Paris, Instructor of “Analyzing Financial Statements”

Accountancy, Tilburg University, Coordinator MSc Accountancy & MSc Accounting, BSc Business Economics

2002 – present

Financial Management Group, Rotterdam School of Management (Erasmus University), Assistant Professor of Management Accounting & Financial Accounting

2003 - present

NIBE-SVV, Instructor of "Financial Accounting and Financial Analysis"

2001 – present

Nive-Hofam Management Opleidingen, Instructor of "External Financial Reporting", Instructor of "Financial Management, Instructor of "Corporate Finance", Instructor of "Accounting Information Systems"

Professional experiences

Academic Publications

Brand, B.R.C.J. van den (2008), Financial Accounting: IFRS the result of Two Centuries Harmonisation (IFRS het resultaat van twee eeuwen harmonisatie), MCA Journal for Financial Executives, Kluwer, the Netherlands.

Book chapters